EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on January 10, 2005 has been entered.
2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
3. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. C. Douglass Thomas (applicant's attorney) on February 22, 2005.
4. The application has been amended as follows:

In the claims:

Claim 21, lines 1-3, change "A computer readable medium including at least computer program code for assisting a user with preparation for an examination having multiple-choice questions, said computer readable medium comprising:" to --A tangible computer readable medium including at least computer program code executable by a computer for assisting a user with preparation for an examination having multiple-choice questions, said computer readable medium comprising:--.

Art Unit: 3713

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Cameron et al (U.S. Pat. No. 5,632,624) - note Figs. 1-8;

Tsumori et al (U.S. Pat. No. 6,435,880 B1) - note Figs. 1-20.

6. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

None of the prior art of record shows the combination of the structure of the claimed method for improving a user's performance on multiple choice examinations by displaying a question and a plurality of answer choices, displaying a hint to assist the user in correctly answering the question at a user's request, receiving the user's selection of one of the answer choices, determining whether the answer choice selected by the user is the correct answer choice, displaying a visual indication of whether the selected answer choice is the correct answer choice, causing an explanation of the correctness or incorrectness of the selected answer choice to be displayed, and displaying substantive information that is linked to the question that has been presented to the user at the user's request (as per claims 1-20); or the claimed tangible computer readable medium including at least computer program code executable by a computer for assisting a user with preparation for an examination having multiple-choice questions comprising computer program code for displaying a question and a plurality of answer choices, computer program code for displaying a hint to assist the user in correctly answering the question at a user's request, computer program code for receiving the user's selection of one of the answer choices, computer program code for determining whether the answer choice selected by the user is the correct answer choice, computer program code for displaying a visual indication of whether the selected answer choice is the correct answer choice, computer program code for
